THE LOSSES WERE HEAVY

DR. PINER GOES SOUTH

The Colombian Troops Claim That They Were Victorious.

Business is Badly Impaired By the South American Trouble.

SERIOUS DEMONSTRATIONS MADE THE FACTS JUST LEAKED

Mobile, Ala., Sept. 28.—Captain V. T. Torrestadt, of the steamer Banes, from Iloca del Toro, reports that the battle fought on September 12 and 13 is claimed by the Colombian troops, but the loss is heavy on both sides. When the Banes left there was no more than 35 government troops in Iloca. About 200 insurgents were outside the place, but making no serious demonstrations. From another source it is learned that the insurgents got their supplies from Chinese merchants. Foreign firms experience trouble in getting messages to and from their agents, some of the latter being in prison charged with aiding the insurgents.

Willemstad, Island of Curacao, Sept. 28.—Venezuela is expected to declare war against Colombia the first of next month, according to the latest developments. I have just returned by the steamship Zulia from Curacao, where the political situation is extremely critical. Port-of-Spain, the capital of the state of Esmeraldas, which has railway connection with the Caribbean Sea, has been transformed into a military camp, where men are pressed into service and horses, mules and ammunitions are sent. The Venezuelan government has not been paying for the animals which it has seized.

The financial situation is very bad. The bank of Venezuela was compelled by military force to subscribe $10,000, which was paid in worthless bank notes. The government has demanded $60,000 of traders, but most of them declared that they were bankrupt and could not contribute. Venezuelan securities are quoted at one-tenth of their original value. The government is nearly bankrupt.

One-fourth of the stores in Curacao are closed. Public opinion grows more and more adverse to President Castro.

The Venezuelan government acknowledges that the Colombian revolutionaries and their Venezuelan allies, under General Davila were defeated on the Guajira peninsula by the Indian chief, Jose Dolores, who is loyal to the Colombian government. It is also admitted that General Bohorquez was killed.

WELL KNOWN HERE.

NEW YORK MILLIONAIRE DIES FROM HEART DISEASE

Many Paducahans know Mr. Thomas Jefferson Slaughter, the New York millionaire who died there from heart disease. He was a former Kentucky merchant, and was once a partner of Mr. Eckstein Norton, a one time resident of Paducah.

Mr. Slaughter was born in the Green River section of Kentucky. His mother was a Miss Bibb, daughter of Judge Bibb. His grandfather was one of seven brothers who fought in the Revolutionary. Mr. Slaughter married Miss Mary Henry, of Itasca, Ill., twin sister of Mrs. George Norton, of Louisville. He leaves many relatives in Louisville—Mr. W. H. Slaughter, Mrs. John S. Carpenter and J. T. Grant Slaughter being among them.

Mr. Slaughter was 57 years old. He was a retired millionaire, and one of the most extensive growers of roses in the country. He moved to St. Louis in 1851, and became a traveling salesman for a grocery house. Ten years later he purchased the business. In 1863 he moved to New York and started the firm of Slaughter, Norton and Co., and the firm remained in business for 25 years.

Mr. Slaughter purchased Dellwood from the late J. J. Gould in 1877.

Conference Decides to Transfer Him to Memphis.

St. Louis Preacher to Succeed Piner's Congregation to Raise a Protest.

Further Trouble is Threatened Up About the Mines.

Bowling Green, Sept. 28.—It leaked out today that the Methodist conference here has decided to transfer Dr. W. K. Piner, who was involved in a sensational shooting scrape at Hopkinsville some time ago, to the Memphis conference and give him charge of the Central Methodist church at Memphis.

His place in Bowling Green will be filled by Dr. Early, of the First Methodist church, St. Louis.

The action of the conference will elicit a strong protest from Dr. Piner's congregation.

Dr. Piner was formerly in Hopkinsville and was shot and slightly wounded by Dudley Ware while the preacher was making a pastoral call, and the affair created a great sensation, which has not yet been forgotten.

RED MEN ELECTED FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

The Red Men held their semi-annual election of officers last night, resulting as follows: H. C. Rhodes being chosen sachem; Robert L. Arnold, senior sagamore; Harry J. Foye, junior sagamore; C. E. Whitesides, prophet; Louis L. Hobart, chief of record; J. J. Fowndleth, keeper of wampum; R. L. B. and collector of wampum; S. E. Burt, George O. Logram and Alphonse E. Young, trustees; O. H. Ballou, custodian. The installation takes place next Friday.

IN QUARANTINE.

BUT THERE WERE NO TICKS ON THIS LOT.

Eighteen more cows from below the quarantine line were shipped here on the steamer Tennessee yesterday. The cattle was immediately placed in quarantine territory to await slaughter. There were no ticks on this consignment and they are all healthy cows.

RACE CLOSE.

THE YACHTS ARE AT IT AGAIN TODAY.

New York, Sept. 28.—With a good breeze the yachts this morning started the second race of the series. The Shamrock got off slightly ahead, but at the end of twenty minutes it had been nip and tuck race, first one and then the other being ahead.

The Shamrock turned the outer mark twenty-one seconds ahead of the Columbia, and the Shamrock started home ahead, but the race was very close.

With the usual American luck, when nearing home the Columbia forged ahead of the Shamrock and quickly made a two lengths lead. It looks like it is a certain winner.

REFEREE IN BANKRUPTCY DECIDES AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Referee E. W. W. Bagby has rendered an important decision in the John Moors case. Moors was fined in the circuit court $400 shortly before he took the bankruptcy law, and the question was whether or not he was liable for the fine. Referee Bagby decides that he is liable for it. He is now writing an opinion in the case, which will be ready shortly.

NEWS FROM THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings at the banks the past week were $556,632.

Clearings this week $556,632.

Same week last year $375,419.

Increase, $181,216.

The clearings the past week show an increase of nearly 50 per cent.

Business at the banks was very active.

With one of the largest of the local institutions Thursday of the week was the biggest day in the history of the bank.

The loans, amount of cash on hand, exchange, deposits, and every item, footed up more than at any time in its history.

The demand for money is good with all the banks and the earnings for the year are running ahead of last year's splendid record.

The wholesale houses are having big shipments and all is activity in their circles. The business for the season will equal that of any previous year. Collections fair.

Retail trade the first part of the week was very good on fall lines, the warm weather of the past few days however caused a lull.

Building activity continues, and the real estate transactions are also numerous for the season of the year. Reports from the tobacco crops are as good as heretofore, and the value of it will run up into big figures. Some of the farmers are finding difficulty in getting enough room for storage, their crops are so large.

River and railroad traffic is very active and the different departments have all the work the present forces can handle.

TO NEW YORK.

Former Paducah Minister Receives a Flattering Call.

He Will Probably Accept—Was at One Time Pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The following New York dispatch will be of interest to Paducahans, bearing the subject of it, Rev. Dr. Geo. C. Lorimer, was one of the first pastors of the First Baptist church, Paducah. It states

"At a meeting last night of the members of the Madison Avenue Baptist church Madison and Thirty-first street, New York, it was unanimously voted to extend a call to the Rev. Dr. George C. Lorimer, pastor of Tremont Temple, of Boston. The Madison Avenue church has been without a pastor since the resignation, several months ago, of the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Sanders. One of the trustees said the meeting last night was entirely unanimous, and there was only one ballot on the name presented by the public committee.

"Dr. Lorimer is well known to Kentucky and the South. His theological position is said to be a conservative one, and he will doubtless accept the call so flatteringly extended by so wealthy a congregation."

Mr. Dexter W. Fellow is still with the show, and his usual friends will be glad to see him again.

No caterers for public amusement combine such an earnest desire to educate the people—both old and young—as do Colonel Cody and Nate Salisbury. In their wild west exhibition these gentlemen give the best of entertainments and amuse in the broadest sense. At the same time they educate. One sees at the exhibition Arabs as they appeared on their native desert; Indians as they were for years in the great west; Mexicans from the mountains of Mexico; Cossacks from the Steppes of Russia; Boers from South Africa; Hawaiians from this country's new possession; natives of Cuba and Tagalog from the Philippines. One does not question the genuineness of these as he views them either in the parade or at the exhibition. That they are the real thing is evident to even the most discriminating critic. This year in addition to the usual features will be Boers who fought with Cronje and De Wet; Canadian Mounted Rifles and Strathcona Horse and battle-scared veterans who fought with Baden-Powell in the defense of Mafeking.

Three things specially marked "The Feast of Tabernacles," or rather, as it should be called, "The Feast of Booths,"—its joyous festivities, the dwelling in booths and the peculiar sacrifices and rites of the week. It lasts one week. There were services last night at Temple Israel.

DEPOT DAMAGED.

WESTERN UNION OFFICE SUFFERS FROM THE FLAMES.

The Western Union telegraph office in Paris, Tenn., caught fire last night, but was saved with slight damage.

The wires were badly mixed for a time but Mr. Sam Duvall, the lineman, went down from Paducah this morning and righted the defect.

All the latest creations in the millinery line will be found at Mrs. Balsley's opening next Tuesday and Wednesday at the Eley dry goods company.

MAJOR BURKE.

The Joyful Showman Was in Paducah Today.

Has Completed Arrangements for the Appearance of Buffalo Bill Next Week.

Major John M. Burke, the genial advance agent of Buffalo Bill, was in the city today completing arrangements for the appearance of the big show next week.

The major has not changed in the least, and is the same hearty, joyful fellow that everybody in the United States knows.

"I am glad," he said, "that the people of Paducah know that Col. Cody with his 600 men and 500 horses, will be here. They can tell it next Thursday by getting out on the street and looking into the faces of the men as they pass.

"We have a great show and expect to have a great crowd."

Mr. Dexter W. Fellow is still with the show, and his usual friends will be glad to see him again.

FINE VIOLIN.

MISS LUCILLE PERRYMAN RECEIVES A PRESENT FROM SUPT. LOGSDEN.

Miss Lucille, the little daughter of Mr. G. W. Perryman, of the First Baptist church, has received a handsome birthday present from Sept. Logsdon, of the L. and N., Evansville, in the shape of a fine violin, which was selected by an expert at Baltimore.

It is pronounced one of the best instruments ever bought to Paducah. Little Miss Perryman is a student of the violin, and is learning rapidly.

Coal Tipple Where Miners Were Working Riddled With Bullets This Morning.

SOLDIERS TO GUARD ALL THE MINES

FEW HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST

New Schedule Goes in on the N. C. & St. L. Railroad Tomorrow.

Fulton Papers Doubt a Story Told in Paducah—Local Changes.

EARLINGTON Sept. 28.—About 9 o'clock this morning men concealed near Carbide Coal Company's tipple fired forty shots at the miners who were at work. The tipple was riddled but nobody was shot.

A new strikers' camp was just established nearby yesterday.

Adj. Murray is here to look over the situation. He arrived to take the place of Col. Hiley, who was ordered home by the illness of his father.

General Murray has issued an order that any soldier found drunk or visiting a saloon will be severely punished. Many soldiers have been heard to complain of the tameness of the trouble. They say they came here expecting to find the union and non-union men engaged in war, but they had not seen a union striker since they came. The only duty that they have to perform is to march to the mines both morning and evening and escort the non-union men to and from work, and guard duty, which is very light.

General Murray is in conference with the coal operators and their attorneys, submitted a proposition that the operators turn over the property to be protected wholly by militia, and all guards discharged. This was accepted and soldiers exclusively are to guard all the mines.

THE STATE ASSEMBLY OF REBEKAHS MEETS HERE NEXT YEAR.

Paducah has secured the state convention for the Rebekahs in 1902. Medumes Lea Ellington and O. T. Anderson, the local delegates, succeeded in getting it, and Mrs. Ellington, in addition, was elected outside guard.

The Rebekah State Assembly, I. O. O. F., adjourned today, to meet in Paducah next year.

Mrs. Margaret Swartz, the retiring president, was the recipient of a handsome regalia collar from the state assembly and a beautiful silver tray from Friendship Lodge, of Mayville, on account of her seal for the order and her successful administration. The presentation address was delivered by Deputy Grand Master of Kentucky Allen D. Cole.

The following officers were elected:

Mrs. Mollie V. Wolfe of Williamsburg, president; Mrs. Kate Anderson of Newport, vice president; Mrs. Leon Knighton of Louisville, warden; Mrs. Corrine C. Graham of Louisville, secretary, and Mrs. Susie V. Wheeler of Prestonville, treasurer. The following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:

Marshul, Mrs. Louise Hess of Louisville; conductor, Mr. Turner of Williamsburg; chaplain, Mrs. Hannah F. Covington of Lexington; inside guard, Mr. Sarah Veith of Covington; outside guard, Mr. Lena Ellinger of Paducah.

CHICAGO COUPLE.

MR. W. R. BAKER AND MISS MOLLIE SACKETT WED.

Miss Mollie Sackett and Mr. W. R. Baker of Chicago, were married yesterday afternoon by County Judge Emery, at the court house. The couple arrived on the afternoon train, and had little to say in regard to their marriage so far from home.

Attend Mrs. Balsley's opening Tuesday and Wednesday and see the latest creations in the millinery line.

Don't forget to register. Tuesday is the day.

ON WHEELS.

A CALIFORNIAN IS SEEING THE WORLD CHEAP.

A man from California passed through the city this morning en route to New Orleans. He is a tourist in the widest sense of the word and has seen more of the country and has seen it to a better advantage than most tourists who travel in a style different from his own. He has a broncho, such as is seen only in the western country, hitched to a small two-wheeled cart which was filled with buckets and cooking utensils, also his golf washing pan and wearing and sleeping clothes. He traveled in this way from Utah City, Cal. and has been in Chicago, traveling south and coming through this end of the state. He has traveled a distance of something near 5,000 miles, all in this fashion. He says he never rides in a train and prefers this method of traveling as it is more beneficial in many ways. He stopped on Broadway a short time but did not tarry long. Several local men, who have been in Chicago during the past month, say they saw him there and he has been away from that city a short time only.

DAILY THOUGHT.

"God's great plan needs you and me;
Will is greater than Destiny,
And Love moves the world along."

When the salaries of police officers were reduced by the Republican council in '93, the financial condition of the country was such that reductions were being made in every business and profession. Men were anxious to work for much less than they are now, and there was some excuse for a reduction at that time. Good men could be secured at low salaries, and were anxious to get the places. Now the situation is changed. Times are good, money is plentiful and if police salaries should be larger, there is no excuse for two Democratic councilors refusing to make them so. Anything that is said about that reduction in '93 will react with disastrous results on the Democrats, who for four years have allowed the salaries to remain where the Republican council placed them thus, showing that the salaries that had been previously paid were too large, that the taxpayers had been forced to pay more than the service they received was worth, and that the Republicans had the sense and courage to put the salaries where they belonged. The Democrats, by allowing them to remain there, have voluntarily ratified the action of the Republican council and have no reasonable grounds for such criticism as one of the councilors made the other night. If the salaries are too small, why in the name of common sense haven't the Democrats put them where they belong?

Usually for a man to be interested in a large corporation indicates that he has both money and brains; that he has capital and the business management necessary to its best uses. A man who can manage his own affairs well would reasonably, in most instances make a good public servant, should he seek, or be honored with, public office. The only question left is as to his honesty. If there is any one who thinks that the public spirited men identified with the larger interests of Paducah are not honest enough to hold public offices, or would if they wanted office and secured it, not serve the people faithfully, or would make the affairs of the people subservient to their own, that person has not the courage to come out in the open and make the charge. If such gentlemen are able, sagacious business men, familiar with financial affairs; men of experience, and of successful business careers, it seems that there is little argument in the insinuation that they may be put out for office, and no reason why any party should be ashamed of their support.

The people of Paducah now have the advantages of a park that was bought and is kept up by somebody else. What more they want is hard to understand, and why the city council should seriously consider paying fourteen thousand dollars for a park that there will be no way to reach after it is bought is very obscure, unless it is because they don't know any better, or are trying to help boost the sale of the property. The property may be worth double the amount in a few years, but the council has no authority to speculate with the people's money. The law never intended that it should, and if the council wants a park, let it appropriate the money necessary to pay for it when the tax levy is made some year, and then there will be no question of law to wrangle over. Everybody wants the city to own a public park, but does not want the present site to be bought at the figure named, when there is no money with which to pay for it, and no way to reach it if the city owned it.

The Sun is not aware that City Attorney Lightfoot was quoted as saying that he would report at the next meeting of the council that there was no way of purchasing the contemplated public park. The Sun intimated:

"City Attorney R. T. Lightfoot is not yet ready to announce his opinion in the matter of the city's purchase of the park site in Areawla, and stated this morning that he had not looked this over, but expected to do so at once.

"It is very evident, however, that he is of the opinion that as the city has not the ready money to pay for the ground, she cannot buy it, at least not on the proposed terms of a six years' loan."

This was readily understood by the intelligent, which probably accounts for its being misunderstood by the morning paper.

It is understood that Congressman Wheeler is well pleased with the manner in which his Mayville speech has been received. He attacked the dead president with the express purpose of lining up the partisans. It was demagogery pure and simple. He concluded that if he made a play to the gallery, he would get the applause of the class of people he hopes will give him a boost in his race for the United States senate. It would have been bad enough if he really meant what he said, but to have delivered such a contemptible speech only for the purpose of making political capital serves the people of Kentucky what sort of men want to represent them in the national assembly.

Paducah should have a public park if there is any way to get one, but she should also have a great many other things. Some steps should be taken to properly pave the streets in the business part of town. Third street, which is destined to become one of the most important in the city, as business and population grow, should be made more substantial and more pleasing to the eye. Paducah has a great many advantages but in the past there has been too little pride in the appearance of the city, and the result is that we are behind many smaller cities in the matter of having first class thoroughfares, and clean ones. There is nothing about a city that impresses strangers more than the streets.

Secretary of State James A. Root, of Illinois, and well known in Paducah, where he now visiting, said in a memorial speech at Springfield last week: "If in this hour of trial the nation shall come redeemed from the accursed doctrine of destruction of the family circle, of the marriage tie and of all governments, then William McKinley will not have died in vain. The problem of what we ought to do with the anarchist is now solved. I do not know by just what method, but it occurs to me that God in His infinite wisdom, has made the American people the instrument in His hands, under His direction, in some way or other forever to settle this great question."

The Republican county ticket is one that speaks for itself. It is composed of good, intelligent men who are capable of giving the people the best of service. The clique that has had the county for many years should be ousted, and the way to do it is to vote the Republican ticket. Many Democrats will help get rid of the gang.

Some of them have been openly accused of having secured their nominations unfairly, and many good Democrats have yet forgotten it. Compare the two tickets, and you will see that the Republicans have the advantage.

The Republicans are in favor of better country roads, which means a curtailment of the money spent on dirt roads, and gravel substituted until the roads in the county are gravel roads. Thousands of dollars are wasted every year on road work that is washed away with the first hard rain. If the money were spent for gravel there would always be something to show for it.

The Democrats still decline to tell the people what they propose to do if elected to office in November. Paducah is a city, and it is due the public to understand what they are voting for, whether progress or retrogression.

The city council, which occasionally seems so anxious to display its solicitude for the public, has even refused to put up a ten dollar bond stand that the people might enjoy free open air concerts.

The Lexington Leader thinks that if the New York Journal's crusade against vice is vigorously pushed it will exterminate the paper itself.

In their list of public improvements will the Democrats include another $33,000 wharf and a lovely brick street?

Registration day is Tuesday, and those who expect to vote should not fail to register.

The park question seems destined to go by the board.

COST OF THE LAWMAKERS.

Europe's Parliaments Are Expensive
Lectures to the Taxpayers.

The most expensive parliament in Europe is that of France, which costs $1,500,000 a year. The French people are very well represented. There are 300 senators and 581 deputies, a total in excess of 800. Each receives a salary of $1,500 a year. In the United States the ninety senators and 360 congressmen are paid $2,500,000 in salaries. The members of the British parliament serve without salary. The incidental expenses of this body last year were but $260,000. The German Reichstag, with its two branches, costs the voters an average $100,000 a year. Russia has no parliament in the American or French sense, so that this item is entirely saved. The legislators in the Italian parliament receive no salaries, but have free transportation on railroads. The cost of the Italian parliament last year nevertheless was $420,000. The salaries of lawmakers in many parts of Europe seem trifling, according to American standards. In London, for instance, there are 150 members of the upper and 250 in the lower branch. The former get no pay at all and the latter but $300 a year. And if any session lasts longer than four months they are paid at the rate of $2.50 a day additional. The parliament of Holland comprises 150 members in the two houses. Members of the upper house receive $1 a day and of the second house $100 a year and mileage. The parliament of Holland costs $300,000 a year. The most scantily paid of any of the regularly salaried lawmakers are those of Austria. There are two legislative bodies for Austria, one meeting in Vienna and one in Buda-Pesth. The total cost is $800,000 a year. An Austrian law provides that the members receive 10 florins, or $1.25 a day.—Ex.

A SOUTHERN BLOSSOM.
Come and see her as she stands;
Crimson rose in her hands;

And her eyes
Are as dark as Southern night,
Yet than Southern dawn more bright,
And a soft, silvery light
In them lies.

None drowsy if she beareth
With that pretty, liquid speech
Of the South.
All her consonants are slurred,
And the vowels are preferred;
There's a poem in each word
From that mouth.

Even Cupid is her slave;
Of his arrows half he gave
Her one day,
In a merry, playful hour.
Dowered with these and beauty's
dower,
Strong indeed her magic power—
So they say.

Yours, not to be outdone
By her generous little son,
Shaped the moath
Very like to Cupid's bow.
Look-a-day! Our North can show
No such lovely flowers as grow
In the South!

WEDDING ANNOUNCED

The marriage of Miss Frances Clark to Mr. Richard Anderson Craig of New York City, will take place on the 16th of October.

This announcement will be interesting to the many friends of Miss Clark here and their good wishes will be of the last.

Miss Clark is the eldest daughter of Mrs. Emma Clark and granddaughter of Col. John U. Noble and is exceedingly bright and talented. She has dived in Paducah all of her life, until the last few years when she has been engaged in literary work in New York City, where it was she met Mr. Craig.

Mr. Craig is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Craig who formerly lived here and are pleasantly remembered by Paducah's older residents. His mother was Miss Helen Johnson, a famous belle and beauty of Paducah's autecbellian days.

The wedding will thus possess a double interest for Paducah people.

A NOTABLE EVENT.

Paducah's social season may be said to have virtually opened with the opening of The Kentucky on Tuesday evening. At least everybody was on hand to grace the occasion, from the four quarters of the continent, as it were, had they hastened home for the event, and never did Society look more charming. It was as if every one had been waiting for just this occasion, and had aroused from their long summer beauty sleep more brilliant and charming than ever. And Paducah's beautiful opera house of which she is justly proud, made a most fitting frame for a charming a picture as can be imagined or described. Each seemed to set off and adorn the other. There were many beauteous costumes worn that were creations of art and beauty, and a goodly number of fair women and gallant men, perhaps, our city had never looked upon in all its history of notable occasions. A great many visitors were present from a distance and lent interest and charm to the glowing scene.

The four boxes were, of course, the center of attraction and very gallantly did they meet the demand. Manager English's box was occupied by Mr. and Mrs. James E. English, Mrs. M. E. English, of Madisonville, Mrs. Fred Rudy and Mr. W. C. Morton, of Madisonville. Mrs. James English wore white embroidered with silver; Mrs. Rudy was very attractive in pale blue, and Mrs. English of Madisonville, wore black silk.

The Friedman-Keller box contained Mr. and Mrs. John W. Keller, Mrs. Friedman, Miss Anita Keller and Mr. Joseph L. Friedman. Mrs. Keller was charmingly gowned in white with a garniture of pink roses; Mrs. Friedman was a handsome creation of black and white; Miss Anita Keller, looked very charming.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Utterback, and Mrs. Urey Woodson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gus Coulter of Frankfort, occupied another box. Mrs. Utterback wore pink silk mull, Mrs. Woodson a handsome light silk costume and Mrs. Coulter an attractive gown of black net.

The remaining box was relieved by no tints or feminine presence, being altogether "black and white," and was filled by Hon. Chas. Reed and his distinguished out-of-town guests. Messrs. H. G. Tandy, John Chenault and Tom Hall of Frankfort; N. J. Dilday, H. W. Powell, and H. V. Wallace of Louisville.

There were many charming little entertainments after the opera, in the form of lancers and suppers, to which a number of guests were invited.

A SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Miss Mickle Haasbro and Dr. W. B. McPherson succeeded in most effectually surprising their host of friends when they were married on Thursday morning and off to Buffalo before a realization of it had dawned on Paducah society. Although the wedding had been an anticipated one, so cleverly was everything planned that even the most intimate friends of each were unaware of the nearness of the event. And it is seldom that Society can be deceived about a wedding, generally it has them down-to-date before the prospective bride and groom have quite settled it themselves.

The wedding was at the home of Mrs. Linneaus Orme on South Fifth street, and although so quiet an affair, was exceedingly pretty. The bride wore white and looked especially charming. Only the family and the bride's brother, Dr. W. L. Haasbro, witnessed the ceremony, which was impressively performed by Dr. W. L. Briggs of the Broadway Methodist church.

Miss Haasbro has been a popular social favorite ever since, coming to make Paducah her home several years ago. She is very attractive and possesses many charms of character.

Mr. McPherson is very prominent in both the business and social circles of the city, and has many warm friends.

After their eastern trip Mr. and Mrs. McPherson will be at home at Mrs. Ellen Morrow's, corner Fifth and Jefferson streets.

Dozens of telegrams of congratulations have already carried them the sincere wishes of their numerous friends here.

GIRACE-SUGARS WEDDING.

As has been announced, the marriage of Miss Carrie Grace to Mr. Arthur Sugars of Needles, Cal., will take place next Wednesday. It will be a quiet home wedding, only the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends being invited. Dr. W. E. Clegg of the First Presbyterian church will perform the ceremony.

Miss Grace is exceedingly pretty and attractive, and her many friends and admirers in the city, where she has always lived, will greatly regret losing her from the social circle.

Mr. Sugars is connected with the Santa Fe road, and is a rising young railroad man. He formerly lived here where he is quite popular, and the friendship thus formed resulted in winning him his pretty bride.

Immediately after the ceremony they will leave for California, their future home.

MISS TURK AND

MR. DOBBS MARRY.

The wedding of Miss Nell Turk and Mr. Clair D. Dobbs of Terre Haute, Ind., was on Wednesday morning. The ceremony was quietly performed by the Rev. J. W. Irion of the Trimble street Methodist church, at the bride's home on Trimble street.

Several out-of-town guests were present for the occasion, among them the Misses Sarah and Etta Dobbs of Terre Haute, Ind.

Miss Turk is a very popular and handsome young woman, with decided musical ability. Mr. Dobbs is a rising young merchant of Terre Haute. Mr. and Mrs. Dobbs left after the ceremony for a trip east, after which they will reside in Terre Haute.

MISS BRENNER AND MR.

WHEELER TO MARRY.

Invitations are out to the marriage of Mr. Louis Wheeler and Miss Mary Brenner on Wednesday morning at ten o'clock at the German Evangelical church. Rev. R. F. Walfman, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony, immediately after which they will leave for an Eastern bridal trip.

Miss Brenner is an attractive and popular young lady, and Mr. Wheeler is a sterling young business man. They each have many friends who will hear with pleasure of this happy termination of an interesting courtship. On their return they will keep house on South Fourth street.

MISS MAMIE JUDGE

AND MR. JOSEPH P.

YEISER TO MARRY.

Miss Mamie Judge and Mr. Joseph P. Yeiser will be married October 16. The wedding will be very quiet, taking place at the residence of Rev. Father Jansen early in the morning, after which they will leave for Buffalo.

Miss Judge is the daughter of Mrs. Pat Judge and is very pretty, attractive and agreeable, with many warm friends.

MR. RICHARD RUDY TO ATTEND.

Invitations have been received in this city to the wedding of Mr. James Milton Grasty and Miss Jolin Haway. It will take place in the St. Joseph's Catholic church of Greenupville, Miss. next Wednesday morning at 11:00 o'clock, and will be a very swell affair. Mr. Richard Rudy of the city is to be an usher.

Mr. Grasty is of Cadiz, Ky., and is quite well known here, where he has often visited. He was one of the out-of-town guests at the marriage of Miss Mary Barnett to Mr. Baxter Pace of Loaisville some time ago.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES P.

P. SMITH ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. James P. Smith entertained very charmingly with a dinner party after the opera Thursday evening. The table was most artistically decorated, and the covers were laid for twelve. The guests were: Miss Elizabeth Smith, Miss Lillian Rudy, Miss Mickle Haasbro, Miss Jane Lewis, Miss Norma Givens of Cincinnati, Mr. Charles Ross of Springfield, Ill.; Mr. George W. Hinman, of St. Louis, Mr. W. B. McPherson, Mr. W. L. Thompson, Mr. Joseph Smith.

S. CITY AT THE PLAY.

The main diversion of Society this week has been theatre going. Little else has been attempted. So long have we been without an opera house, that The Kentucky has all the fascination of a brand-new toy, and these children of a larger growth have relished in its opportunities. Quite a representative audience greeted "The Gay Mr. Goldstein" on Thursday evening. And while it was not a fall dress affair, as was Tuesday evening, it was none the less a social occasion.

A THEATRE LUNCHEON.

After the opening of The Kentucky on Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Campbell gave a luncheon at their attractive Fountain Avenue home to a few friends. It was a very artistic and delightful affair, and those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James E. English; Mrs. M. E. English, of Madisonville; Mr. Fred Rady; Misses May Terrell, Martha Leech, Anna May Yeiser; Messrs. Abram Weil, Frank Rieke, Bradley Wilson, U. Wallace's private car.

A PLEASANT EVENING.

An enjoyable party was given by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Johnson at their home on South Thirteenth street on Wednesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Will Foebech, Mr. and Mrs. Craig; Misses Nellie Morris, Ella Rice, Pearl Rice, Battice Craig, Lillian Kelly, Miss Voght; Messrs. John Rice, Joe Vogt, Ben Winnick, Thomas Parker, Zelma Ross.

HOUSE-PARTY GUESTS.

Mr. and Mrs. Cook Hinslips, Mrs. George Flourney, Miss Mattie Fowler, Miss Emma Reed, left on Wednesday to attend the house party at the attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Warnken of Clarksville. The street fair is on at Clarksville this week, and it is quite a gala time there. It is needless to say that the Warnken home is the scene of much life and pleasure.

A LITTLE INFORMAL.

Mr. Joseph L. Friedman was the host of an informal supper at the Palmer after "The Borgomaster," on Tuesday evening. It was a very delightful occasion, and the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Urey Woodson, Mr. and Mrs. Jas Coulter of Frankfort, Mrs. George Flourney.

THE COMING WEEK.

As yet the announcements of social interest for the coming week are few. Several parties are being planned for "Buffalo Bill" on Thursday, which will be made quite a society event.

The Magazino club will hold its first meeting next week.

The other clubs will surely begin so soon, however arranging to come in later on. The Delphi club will not meet until the 6th, and possibly others will not meet until the second week in October.

Some of the society folk are preparing to run over to St. Louis for the coming Veiled Prophet festivities, so this keeps things a little unsettled for a time.

ABOUT FOLKS.

Miss Aline Bagby has returned from her extended visit to Central Kentucky. Miss Bagby is one of the city's most talented and charming young women, and has been much missed in the musical, literary and social circles.

Miss Grace Smith of Mayfield was the guest of Mrs. Lawrence Gleaves for the opening of The Kentucky. Miss Smith has visited here before, and is quite popular.

Mrs. W. H. Pinkerton and daughter, Miss Gertrude, returned this week from their summer visit to Ghent, Ky.

Mrs. Chas. Hinckle and children left this week for Loaisville to visit Mrs. Hinckle's sister, Mrs. Henry Weisinger.

Miss Louise Cox left today to resume her studies at the Washington City college, which she attended last winter.

Miss Martha Green, after attending the opening of The Kentucky, left for Mayfield, where she has accepted the position of elocution teacher in the West Kentucky college. Miss Green is very popular here, and many regret her leaving.

Miss Susanne Jorgenson left this week for a two weeks' visit to Beten Sae accompanied her father, Mr. Allen J. Jorgenson, who goes to spend his vacation.

Mrs. Luella Leech of Cape Girardeau, who has been spending the summer at Eddyville and Kuttawa, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. R. Fowler, this week. She was accompanied by Miss Mabel Glenn of Kuttawa, who goes for a visit to the Cape.

Mr. J. C. Flourney, who has been quite ill with typhoid-malarial fever for some weeks, is now much improved. He and Mrs. Flourney will leave for Charlotte, N. C., as soon as he is able to travel, and will remain there during the winter. They will be much missed in Paducah social circles, where they have many friends.

Miss Sophie Burnett and Miss May V. Patterson, who have been the guests of Miss Ella Bennett of Mayfield, have returned home. They attended a delightful reception there on Friday night, given by Mrs. Will Webb.

Mr. N. J. Dilday of Loaisville was one of the former Paducahans who showed their loyalty to her by arriving to attend the opening of The Kentucky. He came as guest on Sapi. H. U. Wallace's private car.

Mrs. Isaac Shely Dallam of Palestine, Texas, is the guest of her mother and sisters, Mrs. J. F. Robion and the Misses Robion of North Ninth street. Mrs. Dallam is exceedingly popular here, and her visits are always social events.

Mr. Edward W. Overstreet of Memphis is the guest of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles Hall of South Fifth street. Mrs. Overstreet formerly lived here, and is pleasantly remembered.

The Loaisville Courier-Journal of Wednesday says: Miss Angie Lee Thomas, a charming and popular young lady of Paducah, is visiting her cousins, Miss Nannie Lee Frayer and Miss Edith Frayer, of 900 Fifth street.

Miss Thomas E. Moss left this week for Denver, Col., to be with her daughter, Mrs. Mario Moss Wheat, who is quite ill there with typhoid fever. Later news from Denver reported Mrs. Wheat better.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bradley returned this week from an extended visit to their son, Mr. Givie Bradley, and family in Galena, Texas.

Miss Sasio Hinslips, of Lebanon, Tenn., has arrived to spend the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory of North Ninth street. Miss Hinslips will be an agreeable addition to Paducah's social life.

Miss Flora Mae Clark of the city, who has been playing during the summer in the King Dodo company in Chicago, will this fall play Lydia in

E. J. Carpenter's "Qan Vadis."

The New York Dramatic Mirror this week contains an excellent picture of her, and a complimentary notice of her success on the stage, her promise, and her beauty.

Judge James Campbell, Miss Connie Grundy, Miss Anna Rivers are attending the fair in Evansville.

Captain George Saffrons of the U. S. army, is in the city on a brief visit, en route from Fort Thomas to Memphis. Captain Saffrons is a whilom Paducah boy, and has many friends here to welcome him home, and to be interested in the honors that have come to him since leaving here.

Miss Margery Crumbang, Miss Lula Reed, and Miss Florence Yeiser went to Evansville on a pleasure trip this week.

Mrs. Urey Woodson is spending a few days in Eddyville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Langstaff and Mrs. S. H. Langstaff will arrive home Wednesday from Atlantic City and Mt. Holly, N. J., where they have been spending the summer.

Mrs. Will T. Gould and children of Waco, Texas, and Miss Frances Gould are expected on Thursday or Friday next.

Mrs. Minnie Herndon, who has been so ill in Dallas, Texas, continues to improve, and hopes to be able to return home by the last of October.

Mrs. Franklin Leavitt and sons David and Maurice, of St. Louis, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Nash.

Mrs. Henry G. Tandy and little Miss Elizabeth Reed Tandy left today for Hopkinsville, where they visit several days before returning to Frankfort.

Miss Martha Green, after attending the opening of The Kentucky, left for Mayfield, where she has accepted the position of elocution teacher in the West Kentucky college. Miss Green is very popular here, and many regret her leaving.

Miss Susanne Jorgenson left this week for a two weeks' visit to Beten Sae accompanied her father, Mr. Allen J. Jorgenson, who goes to spend his vacation.

If women didn't know how men like to see them cry, they wouldn't do it so often.

RUDY, PHILLIPS & CO.

ONE SELECTED.

ALEX WATKINS WILL BE SENT TO THE REFORM SCHOOL.

One boy will be sent to the reform school this year, and as the "ball has been started," it is probable that the other three, for whom there is room in the school, will be selected at an early date. Mrs. Bettie Watkins, of South Third street, appeared at the office of Judge Emery this morning with her 12-year-old son, Alex Watkins, whom she claims she cannot control, and whom she wants placed in the reform school. She says the boy will not go to school, and that he is not obedient to her commands, no matter what they might be.

County Attorney Weaver made out the papers this morning, and the boy will be taken to the school at the earliest date possible.

Alex Hutchinson, of Grahamville, age 14, who chased a negro over much territory with a shot gun several months ago and who was in jail several days for the offense, will be examined and will probably be sent to the reform school soon. He is an orphan and has been living here for some time. He has a very bad name and the authorities have decided that he shall also be consigned to that institution.

SHANTY BOATERS.

WARRANTS ISSUED AGAINST THEM—MUST PAY TAXES OR LEAVE.

Warrants have been issued by Judge Sanders for all the shanty boats anchored in Island Creek for being on the city property and not paying a tax.

The warrants are issued every year, and those who are unable to pay generally pull up their stakes and leave for other parts of the river. The creek is now well filled with the boats, many having come here for the winter, and the class of people that generally live on these boats are not the very best citizens, and the city is better off with them away.

SOME CHANGES.

ELECTION OFFICERS FOUND IN-ELIGIBLE.

On account of redistricting of voting precincts the following changes were made: At Chalks, in place of Chas. Riddle, Cy Kelly, clerk; Smiths, in place of A. C. Bundy, clerk; Geo. Katterjohn, clerk; same place, in place of L. B. Whitehurst, sheriff, R. L. Gilbert, sheriff; in place of Leo Barnes, Judge, W. B. Padgett; N. S. C. H., in place of J. Woods, Judge; Joe Uman; Friends, in place of M. H. Gallagher, Judge; Clarence Householder.

These changes were all made according to party affiliations.

HORSE SHOW, NASHVILLE,

TENN., OCT. 8 TO 12.—For the above occasion the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway will sell tickets to Nashville and return Oct. 7 and 8, for one and one-third fare, limit for return October 14. On October 8 will sell at one fare for the round trip, with limit for return October 10.

E. S. Burnham, Agent.

—Manager English has adopted the following prices as the standard for the season, except in the case of extraordinary performances: First 13 rows of orchestra seats, $1.00; balance of down stairs, 25 cents; first 3 rows in the balcony, 25 cents; entire balance of the balcony, 30 cents; first 3 rows in the gallery, 35 cents; balance, 25 cents. These are popular prices, and ones which anyone can afford.

—It was announced at police headquarters this afternoon that no license will be issued to the street fair when Buffalo Bill comes to the city next week. Heretofore anenters and people who wanted to sell or advertise off were granted a license, but the privilege has been abused, and no one will be granted a license this time.

The scale of prices at the Grand in St. Louis for three days, which plays here Sunday evening is from $1.00 to 25 cents, and not 75 cents down, as has been reported on the street. The Grand advertises 75 cent prices, but any one who has ever attended a performance there knows that the orchestra seats cost $1.50 and $1. The other prices are baits.

—J. P. Holt, assignee of Mrs. Hamilton, the milliner, filed an inventory and an appraisal, appraising her stock and her fixtures at $191.58. He was ordered by the court to sell the property.

NOTICE.

NUTS ARE NOT RIPE, BUT WILL BE AFTER A HEAVY
FROST.

It is reported that there is a good crop of nuts, and we have decided to take ladies and children, where there are as many as ten or more in the party, for the round trip, giving them the privilege of gathering nuts on our land when you get tickets on the ticket. Owen, otherwise you will subject yourselves to arrest and punishment for trespassing, according to law. Our land is posted and you will have no right upon it. We have hired watchmen and the Illinois officers to be on hand both day and night and Sundays. If, after this notice any of you are arrested, do not come to us in on your bond. No children allowed without parents or guardians. Respectfully, OWEN BROS.

TWO ARRESTED.

ATTORNEY EATON'S ASSAULTANT
MUST ANSWER MONDAY.

Deputy Sheriff John Ogilvie made two arrests yesterday. Chas. Pierce, who had a fight with Attorney Eaton several days ago, was arrested on a breach of the peace warrant, and will be tried before Judge Barber at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Oran Seay, who was arrested some time ago for carrying concealed weapons, and also for petty larceny, and who was recognized to appear for trial, was again arrested, as he did not show up as agreed. He will be given a hearing before Judge Emery on the 10th day of October for both offenses.

YEAR CLOSES.

GOOD SHOWING FOR THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH HERZ.

The association year for the first Baptist church ends tomorrow, and the congregation is very proud of the showing made. There have been added to the church about 90 members, and many hundreds of dollars have been given to missions and other charities.

There are now 546 members of the church, and the congregations are such every Sabbath as to fill the auditorium and gallery. Rev. Peterman is a very popular minister and always has a large crowd to hear him.

RESCUE MISSION APPEAL.

The Union Rescue Mission workers at 431 South Third street, with Mrs. C. C. Penk at the organ, making good music, are conducting gospel meetings every night at 7:30 and Sunday at 3 p.m. in Canaan on the coal tipple railroad. Also ministering in the homes during the day. We find many homes without Christ and the Bible. We kindly thank all who have helped to sustain this work, and tell you that we are greatly in need of money, clothing, etc. God loves a cheerful giver and we insist that the need be supplied for the continuance of these humble labors for the uplifting of the sin oppressed. The harvest is great and the laborers are few. Everybody cordially invited to take part with us.

R. W. CHILES, Pastor

MRS. IDA B. CHILES, Assistant.

Mrs. Baley's opening, the event of the season, will be held Tuesday and Wednesday.

"FRUIT DAY" FOR THE HOME OF THE FRIENDLESS.

The Board of the Home of the Friendless has set next Wednesday, October 2nd, to be observed as "Fruit Day." They request on that day from each of the good housekeepers of Paducah a contribution of a jar of preserves, pickles or jelly. This will mean very little to our people, but all together it will earn well stocked preserves shelves for the house, and much pleasure to the children through the winter. A committee of the ladies will be at the residence of Mrs. James Campbell, North Seventh street, to receive the contributions on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will no doubt be well remembered.

FOR RENT—A store room at 118 Broadway. Apply to R. Rowland.

Mrs. H. Laufer and her sisters, Misses Hortense and Irene Benson, of Memphis, who have been visiting in the city returned home this week.

Mrs. S. C. Grimes of South Sixth street, has returned home from a pleasant visit to Memphis.

Mr. Julius Well came in at noon from a two months' drumming tour.

Mr. Tom Morton arrived at noon from New Orleans.

Mother's Friend

is a Liniment, and for external use only. It is odorless, and will not stain women's pretty fingers. It would indeed be shameful for a woman to be seen with her hands stained with the strong odors of healthy children. All women about to become mothers need send only to a drug store and for $1.00 secure the price child birth.

Not another application and healthy babies are the result of the use of Mother's Friend.

The book "Motherhood" mailed free. All women should have it.

1845 WHY 1901 THE MUTUAL BENEFIT IS A LEADER IN BENEFITS

Life Insurance Companies
Are custodians or trustees for their policy holders and have to invest many millions of dollars a year for them.

Benefits to Insured are Increased By

High rates of interest earned on safe investments. A low ratio of expenses to total income and a conservative selection of risks assumed.

In the last thirty years, the average ratio of benefits to policy holders, plus present assets, for each dollar paid by them in premiums, has been $1.06.

How well the companies below have filled their obligations to policy holders is shown by the following Comparisons.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

The people of Paducah are much gratified at the success of Miss Flora Mae Clark, a Paducah girl who is soon to star as Lydia, in "Quo Vadis." Miss Clark has achieved notable success during her brief career on the stage and there is predicted for her a brilliant future.

The impromptu speech of Mr. Keogh of the Gay Mr. Cithigstein, at the Kentucky Thursday night, complimenting Manager English and the theater, was a very good one, and shows that Mr. Keogh is an orator as well as actor. One of his best hits as "they" in the play, was when he was asked why he didn't go and sleep off the beautiful jag he was sporting, and replied, "I can't afford it. It cost too much." Like many in real life, he wanted to enjoy it, for it came high.

Paducah is coming to the front as one of the most important theatrical towns in the south. The big dramatic papers will all contain elaborate writes-ups of the opening of the handsome new playhouse, and the companies that have been here, and are to come, will spread her fame far and near, and will do us a world of good. We are very proud of The Kentucky, and will be more so no time runs on.

People would be surprised to see Manager English's bookings, and realize how many good plays he has for the season. It is good policy not to give out the plays in advance, as is regretted that the excellent list cannot be furnished.

The boxes are going to be of great popularity this year at The Kentucky. There is a great demand for them at every performance.

Miss Jeanette Campbell, of the city, is to be with one of the best eastern companies this season. Miss Campbell intended visiting her home this fall, but accepted an engagement, which prevented. Her many friends will be pleased to learn of her success.

Mr. Harry Glazier comes to The Kentucky Monday night, September 30, in Otis Skinner's dramatization of Robert Louis Stevenson's "Prince Otto." It is a romance that appeals to all classes of theater goers. Mr. Skinner has been singularly fortunate in, while departing radically from the novelist's story, retaining perfectly its atmosphere. "Prince Otto" tells the story of a careless prince, good natured and pleasure loving, who does not take his exalted position seriously and turns over to his ambitious wife, a toy, his sovereign functions. They have married for reasons of state, the marriage being an entirely loveless one and one in name only. For the first time outside the Palace walls they meet in the cottage of a peasant farmer and here Otto discovers to his surprise that there is much in "Seraphina" lovable and lovely. A love scene ensues in which the princess endeavors to induce Otto to return with her to the palace and to ing that something must be done to strengthen his hold upon her, declares his love. She, panic stricken and not knowing in whom to trust, does not dare to cry out. Gondremar, believing that his declared sentiments are returned, goes too far and Seraphina, snatching a dagger, strikes him down. His cries for help bring in the prince and a throng of Gondremar's fellow revolutionists. The prince denounces himself as the author of the violence to the minister, the smouldering fire of revolution breaks forth, and Otto is hurried away to prison. Seraphina makes her escape and, wandering through the woods, finally comes to the peasant's cottage where she and Otto had met in the first act. Here Otto, after his release through the instrumentalities of Countess Von Hosen, finds her. They are now without a country. A mutual understanding ensues and a reconciliation takes place. This is one of the prettiest love scenes ever placed upon assist in the active conduct of affairs of state. He refused and the interview ends with a widened gulf between them. After she has departed the prime minister, the prince learns from the peasant folk of the revolution which is being fostered by his chief of state. He returns at once to the palace and in his hunting suit enters the ball room. His wife is greatly humiliated at his appearance. Here he discovers for the first time the imprisonment of Lord Philip Saxe, an Austrian spy whom he has entertained under the guise of an English traveler. He demands to see the incriminating papers which have caused Saxe's incarceration. The diary contains a bitter attack upon the prince and his prime minister and depletes Seraphina as an ambitious wanton. Filled with rage he tears from the book the pages relating to his wife, bids the assembled guests to depart, and, after a stormy interview with Saxe, orders him to leave the country. The next act takes place in the council chamber. The connell is in secret session, to which he has not been invited, and has under consideration the appropriation of moneys for the prosecution of a war of conquest against a neighboring state. The prince's cousin objects to the movement and a stormy scene ensues. Here the prince enters and for the first time since his elevation to the sovereignty assumes his rightful station as the director of the cabinet. He demands an explanation as to the measure under consideration and exposes the prime minister to the revolutionary movement, taking from Gondremar's breast the proof of his membership in the revolutionary party, a medal with a counterfeit presentation of the minister upon it. The connell is dissolved. The prime minister alone with Seraphina, realizes the stage.

The coming production of "Prince Otto" at the Kentucky is being looked forward to with a great deal of anticipation by Mr. Glazier's many admirers. "Prince Otto" is Otis Skinner's dramatization of Robert Louis Stevenson's novel bearing the same name and was used by Mr. Skinner in last season. Mr. Glazier has bought the Skinner production in its entirety. Careful attention has been given to the Sartorial "makeup" of the various characters. In the third act Mr. Glazier wears a striking costume, the Austrian uniform, semi-barbaric in his makeup. Around his shoulder is hung a leopard's skin saddle, the forepaws embracing the body while the pelt swings free. The uniform is a dazzling scarlet cloth heavily embroidered with silver, the military tights of the same color have a carbuncle design in silver braid running down the front of each leg. The uniform is absolutely correct in style and has been in use in the Austrian army and the armies of some of the smaller German states for centuries. It may be seen today in some of the smaller continental armies with slight modifications. The costuming of the play is laid in the period of 1820 and is most picturesque, thus affording the ladies of the company ample scope in the dressing of the various characters. Mr. Glazier is to be congratulated upon securing a play so perfectly adapted to his style of work. The production is a very complete one, being exactly the same which was used during the run of the play at Wallack's theater, New York, and McVicker's theater, Chicago.

When a woman marries a man to reform him, the poor fellow is up against heroic treatment.

THINGS THEATRICAL.

The people of Paducah are much gratified at the success of Miss Flora Mae Clark, a Paducah girl who is soon to star as Lydia, in "Quo Vadis." Miss Clark has achieved enviable success during her brief career on the stage and there is predicted for her a brilliant future.

The impromptu speech of Mr. Krogh of the Gay Mr. Goldstein, at the Kentucky Thursday night, complimenting Manager English and the theater, was a very good one, and shows that Mr. Krogh is an orator as well as actor. One of his best hits as "Ikey" in the play, was when he was asked why he didn't go and sleep off the beautiful jag he was sporting, and replied, "I can't afford it. It cost too much." Like many in real life, he wanted to enjoy it, for it came high.

Paducah is coming to the front as one of the most important theatrical towns in the south. The big dramatic papers will all contain elaborate

RIVER NEWS IN GENERAL

Call Issued for the Tennessee River Improvement Association—Meets at Huntsville.

Is of the Utmost Importance to This Section—Tennessee River Needs Work

OTHER RIVER MATTERS OF INTEREST

The Eighth annual meeting of the Tennessee river Improvement Association will take place at Huntsville, Ala., on October 16th. The president, Newell Sanders, has sent out the following circular letter:

Dear Sir—We beg to extend to you a most cordial invitation to attend the Fifth annual meeting of the Tennessee Improvement Association in Huntsville, Alabama, at 12 o'clock noon, Wednesday, Oct. 16th, 1901.

The very significant recognition that was given this important interstate waterway by the Rivers and Harbors Committee of congress at the last session indicated a disposition to abandon this great work unless the people in the whole Tennessee Valley in no uncertain terms demand its completion.

The success of the steamer Avalon in making schedule trips between Chattanooga and Paducah the past season, and the magnificent results obtained in spite of the obstacles thrown in her way by other transportation lines demonstrates the feasibility of navigating our noble river and the great developments that would follow if the contemplated improvements were completed.

We most earnestly solicit your attendance and assistance at this important meeting of our association. Very respectfully yours,

NEWELL SANDERS, President.

Z. C. PATEEN, Sec. and Treas.

The river still continues to fall, the gauge marking 9.6 this morning, a fall of nine-tenths.

Captain Saunders Fowler returned from New York this morning where he spent some four months, but with his long association with greater New Yorkers he still wears the unmistakable characteristics of a "Kentucky Corn Cracker." You can never be mistaken in a Kentuckian, as he can ever be recognized, even by his back. Mr. Fowler will now kneel down to business with headquarters in the saddle at his office, corner First and Broadway, Fowler Crumbaugh and Co.

The Louisville Post yesterday says: The Marion Cellulose company and the Louisville and Evansville Packet company were sued at Owensboro Wednesday for $20,000 by John A. Barnes for the drowning of his daughter Clara on the night of July 12. Miss Barnes was drowned in attempting to get off the Prawn, one of the wooden boats, as it was returning from an excursion. It is charged that the Tarsocoon struck the barge upon which she was attempting to alight.

Louisville Courier-Journal says: The Avalon has gone to Parkersburg to be lengthened. The boat's hull will be cut in two, just forward of her smoke stacks, and thirty-three feet will be added, from the smoke stacks forward to the bow of the boat.

This will give the steamer a much larger carrying capacity. As soon as the addition is made the steamer will proceed to the Tennessee river, where the vessel will again enter the Paducah and Chattanooga trade.

Mr. George Shaner, steward of the Dick Fowler, leaves for Newport, Ky., via rail today on a short visit of a few days in his family.

The City of Clifton from Tennessee river is due here next Monday morning.

The John K. Speed will make one trip from St. Louis to New Orleans before going back in her old trade from Cincinnati to New Orleans.

The foliage along the banks of the river will soon begin to tinge a golden hue. Then is the time for a pleasant river trip.

The Natchez Democrat says: Here is an interesting item for the river boys. President Roosevelt's great uncle, Nicholas J. Roosevelt, in connection with Fulton and R. R. Livingston, of New York, built the New Orleans or Pittsburg, the first steam boat which navigated the western waters.

Mr. John Watts, pilot, leaves on the Tennessee this evening for a trip to Chattanooga. He goes for the purpose of looking at the river preparatory to coming out as pilot on the Avalon.

The Tennessee leaves for Tennessee river this afternoon at 3 o'clock. She is setting a good night trip.

The little City of Tarrville left today for Carrville. She is just about the size of a big dry goods box.

The fog that has prevailed for the past few nights has been a great drawback to the packets.

Captain Koger will go to Madison early next week and will bring the Clyde home.

The City of Memphis leaves St. Louis today at 5 p. m. for Tennessee river, is due here next Monday.

Miss Marion leaves for Tennessee river this afternoon at 3 o'clock. She is setting a good night trip.

The little City of Tarrville left today for Carrville. She is just about the size of a big dry goods box.

The fog that has prevailed for the past few nights has been a great draw-back to the packets.

Business was much better today on the wharf than it has been for several days past.

The Dunbar left Nashville today at noon for this port. Captain Tyner will transfer to his old post, the H. W. Button, on arrival here taking all his crew with him. The Dunbar will lay up here for a short time.

The new organization formed this week in this city in making a new company to be known in future as the Paducah and Cairo Packet company, will hold the meeting for election of officers on the second of October.

The Victor arrived last night from New Madrid, where she went to assist in raising the sunken Hallette. The work was abandoned as the river was too high to work to any advantage. It's a question whether she can be raised at all.

The Dick Fowler left for Cairo on time this morning. She had about 40 or 50 passengers and light freight.

John S. Hopkins having left here on last Thursday more than ten hours behind time will not report here until this afternoon, but will leave shortly after arrival on return trip.

The Charleston is due tomorrow afternoon from Clifton, Tennessee.

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 9.6 on the gauge, a full of 0.9 in last 24 hours. Wind east, light breeze. Weather cloudy and warmer. Temperature 68. Poll, Observer.

POLICE COURT.

BOYS WILL WORK ON THE STREETS FOR DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Robert Buckner, Genie Mack, Charles Lee and Warren Rold, colored, were charged with disorderly conduct by being insolent to Mrs. Black, of Tennessee street, from whose house they attempted to take some transacks. They were all given thirty days on the streets.

J. H. Enders was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

L. McIntis was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

Will Woolburn and James Ityan, white tramps who were arrested in a box car, were fined $5 and costs, and will be released when examined by a physician, if found to be physically unable to work.

Mr. J. M. Rouse, the well known contractor, has just closed a contract with Mrs. Webb, of Smithland, for a frame hotel, $1,000.

Mrs. Webb has kept a hotel in Smithland for many years and several weeks lost the hotel by fire. She immediately began preparations for the erection of a new house and the work will begin a week from Monday. All the material for the building will be purchased here.

Mr. Rouse will put a large force of local carpenters on the work and it will be finished in a few weeks. It will be modern and with every convenience.
